APRIL 2021 STUDENTS REPORTED:

• Nearly half (48%) of students gave Fall 2021 learning an A grade compared to 40% grades for Spring 2021.

• Students are more satisfied with in-person learning but want flexibility. 49% of students gave their hybrid courses an “A” rating.

• 68% of two-year students want to take some courses fully online post-pandemic and 63% want more digital materials and resources in their courses.
WITHIN THE LAST 12 MONTHS STUDENTS REPORTED:

- 87% felt overwhelmed by all they had to do
- 70.8% felt very sad
- 65.7% felt overwhelming anxiety
- 58.7% indicated more than average to tremendous stress
- 51.2% felt academics were traumatic or very difficult to handle

BENEFITS OF ONLINE INSTRUCTION

• Flexibility
• New ways to collaborate
• Getting to know students better
• Greater engagement and learning
• Efficiency
• Enriching Experience
BRIDGE THE GAP

• Between connecting with our students

AND

• Providing digital instruction in some capacity
• The heart of teaching. It is the rules and principles that guide effective and efficient activities which lead to learning (Pritchard & Woollard, 2010).

• The field relies heavily on educational psychology, which encompasses scientific theories of learning, and to some extent on the philosophy of education, which considers the aims and value of education from a philosophical perspective (Britannica.com)

PEDAGOGICAL APPROACHES
4 P’S OF TEACHING

• Presence
• Process
• Product
• Performance
PRESENCE

- Self-Reflect – window into how you will perform as a teacher.
- The Difference – The Hierarchy
- Teacher presence vs. students presence.
- How do you start each zoom? How do you start class? Did you already send entry communication to start your presence.
• How do you establish your presence with your students?

• Regardless of your overall level of concern, what is one aspect about entering the classroom as a college teacher that gives you pause or even worries you a bit?
PROCESS

• Organized – Set the Framework

• Communicated- How do we create microwave communication in a 24/7 crockpot day.

• Consistent- Consistent, organized, and communicated process.
• Describe a thought or two about how you might help students of all types organize their classwork in a hybrid classroom?
PRODUCT

• Content – King in the classroom but the enemy is time.
What are some of your biggest fears about trying to bring your content expertise to the classroom?
DELIVERING THE PRODUCT DIGITALLY

• Traditional & Tech in The Classroom
• Blended/Flipped
• Techie Teacher/Strong Blend
