Making the Melody

Maslow Before Bloom – Combining Models

✦
• Use the rhetorical triangle to sell your students on using available resources...
✦

• ...because if you couldn't convince yourself to use them, how are you going to convince our students to use them? ♪

Synchronizing the Symphony

Maslow-Bloom-Rhetoric-Equity

The way we encourage our students to utilize every available resource can help them to climb the pyramid!

The more equity handholds and footholds we put into place, the easier it will be for students to climb the pyramid.
