

Exactly What to Ask to Build Learning Experiences Students Love

What is a historical situation where you could have benefited from being *more curious?

GIVE CONTEXT
UNCERTAINTY

“The worst time to think about what you’re trying to say is when you’re trying to say it”

Who are you speaking to later this week?

What is the #1 reason why we don't ask for things we want?

“I’m not sure if it’s for you, but...”

There's no pressure here

Create intrigue and curiosity

Leverage the power of BUT People do things for their reasons, not yours.

“Can you help me understand...”

Make your lack of understanding *your fault

Position yourself as the learner

Create their context

“You have 3 options...”

Option 1: Hard choice with questionable returns

Option 2: Do nothing

Option 3: Make the right choice

“Would it help if...”

A conditional offer of help that creates a new hypothetical reality

Stuck in MAYBE

Be so helpful it's almost impossible to refuse

The person asking the questions is in control of the conversation

What has been the most valuable learning for you so far?
